

JURY DELIBERATES IN THE NOYER CASE

No Verdict Late Today After Trial
For Operating Automobile
Without Indiana License

MANY MOTIONS OVERRULED

Six Criminal Cases Are Dismissed
Today For Lack of Evidence
And Want of Prosecution.

The jury was still deliberating in circuit court at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon in the trial of R. W. Noyer, accused of operating an automobile here with an Ohio license. The state contended he violated the state law providing a license other than one issued by this state can not be used more than sixty days. The jury received the case at 11:30 o'clock today.

Six criminal cases were dismissed today for the lack of evidence and the want of prosecution. Charges of gaming against James Brooks, John S. Beale and Albert Sorrell were dismissed because a former jury returned a verdict of not guilty on the same evidence on which these cases were based. The same reasons were given for the dismissal of the charge of keeping a gaming house against John S. Beale and the charge of renting a house for gaming purposes against P. A. Miller. The case of the state against Owen Rodney for defrauding an inn keeper was dismissed for the want of prosecution.

R. W. Noyer, the defendant in the criminal case on trial, testified that he had been a resident of the city since May 1 when he took charge of a local newspaper. His attorney, Will Newbold, also brought out in the testimony that he had an Ohio license on his automobile.

Noyer was arrested on August 22 and the state contended that, according to a state law, an automobile can be operated on another state license for only sixty days. Chief of Police Yakey and Policemen Seward and Newhouse testified that they had known Noyer since some time in May and that they had seen him operating his machine with an Ohio license on it. They were the only witnesses for the state and Noyer was the only defense witness. The defense did not attempt to deny that Noyer had operated an automobile more than sixty days here with an Ohio license.

EARL GREGORY IN FRANCE

Rushville Boy With 54th Aero
Squadron Arrives Safely.

Earl Gregory, son of Mrs. Lizzie Gregory, of the 54th Aero Squadron, has safely reached France, according to the letter received today by his mother. Nothing definite could be said in the letter. He said, however, that he was "some place across the ocean" that he was feeling fine and was lucky enough not to be seasick. He stated that he was to take another examination and that after that he would probably be put at his own trade, that of a machinist. He would act as a machinist in the aviation corps. Mr. Gregory left this country October 13 and this is the first that his folks have heard from him since that time.

IS ARRESTED FOR ISSUING BAD CHECK

Paul Spacey, Employed by Ellis
Culbertson, is Indicted by Grand
Jury at Connersville

SIGNS HIS NAME J. W. SPACEY

Carl Spacey, employed by Ellis Culbertson living a mile south of Glenwood, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Sheriff Cavitt for issuing a fraudulent check. He was indicted by the Fayette county grand jury at Connersville and the bench warrant was sent here for his arrest. It is said that he issued a check to a Connersville saloon keeper in payment for a bill with no funds in the bank.

Spacey signed his name to the check "J. W. Spacey." When the warrant for his arrest came, Sheriff Cavitt for a time could not locate him. He remembered a man named Spacey worked for George Reeves and he went there. Mr. Reeves said Spacey was now working for Culbertson and the sheriff and the Connersville saloon keeper immediately went to the Culbertson farm. They found Spacey and he was identified by the saloon keeper. Spacey is said to have admitted his guilt.

JURY ACQUITS RALPH MILES IN 25 MINUTES

Holds in Effect Administering Serum
And Virus is Not Practicing
Veterinary Medicine

WAS PRIMARILY A TEST CASE

Ralph Miles of Raleigh, who was charged in an affidavit filed by the state board of veterinary examiners through its secretary, Emmett Davis, of practicing veterinary medicine and surgery without a license, was acquitted by a jury in the circuit court late Wednesday after only twenty-five minutes in deliberation.

The case was primarily to test the question as to whether or not it is unlawful for anyone not holding a veterinary's license to administer serum and virus for the prevention of hog cholera. The evidence showed that Mr. Miles had administered serum and virus to about 26,400 hogs this fall; that all of them have done well and have given satisfaction to the owners. By deciding for the defendant, the jury in effect held that the administration of serum and virus was not practicing veterinary medicine and surgery.

Mr. Miles for some time has been the local representative of the Swine Breeder's Pure Serum company, whose laboratories and plant is located at Thorntown, Ind. The prosecuting attorney, A. C. Stevens, was assisted by John A. Tittsworth and Douglas Morris. T. M. Green and S. L. Trabue represented the defendant.

TEACHERS TO HEAR PRACTICAL TALKS

Emphasis to be Laid on Agriculture
at 23rd Annual Meeting of
Rush County Association

TO BE HELD HERE SATURDAY

At Least 240 Teachers Are Expected
and Any Persons Interested
Are Invited

One hundred and forty Rush county teachers are expected to be in the city Saturday for the twenty-third annual session of the Rush county teachers' association, which will be held in the Graham high school building. Aside from the teachers, all persons interested in education are invited to attend the sessions, the morning session beginning at 9 o'clock and the afternoon session at one o'clock. J. H. Francis, superintendent of the schools of Columbus, Ohio, is to be the principal speaker before the institute. Mr. Francis has had experience in educational movements and comes highly recommended as a talker.

During the morning session the following numbers will be given: devotional exercises by the Rev. C. S. Black; music by the high school girls Glee Club; lecture by J. H. Francis on "Education Fundamentals;" talk on "Teaching the New Agriculture," by Fred Mutchler; and talk on "Writing," by J. H. Bachtinkircher.

The program for the afternoon session follows: violin solo by C. E. Parke; lecture on "Leisure Time of American Boys and Girls," by J. H. Francis; talk on "Teaching the New Agriculture," by Mr. Mutchler followed by another talk on writing by Mr. Bachtinkircher. A business session will close the meeting.

Emphasis in the association meetings will be laid on the new agricultural methods because of the nation-wide movement to urge the young people to do their share in increasing America's output in food-stuffs. Mr. Mutchler is well posted in this line of work and can give the latest methods which should be taught the young people who can take up farming. Mr. Mutchler comes from the college of agriculture in the university of Kentucky at Lexington and Mr. Bachtinkircher teaches in the penmanship department of the Lafayette schools.

Asks Reports on Soaring Of All Substitute Foods

Council of Defense Says Dealers
Who Increase Them Will Feel
Teeth of Food Law

NO "ADULTERATED POULTRY"

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 22.—Food authorities are having their attention called to the higher cost of "substitute foods." The essence of the war time food campaign is the argument in favor of substituting, on the American table, cornmeal for wheat, nuts and fish and poultry for meats and the saving of fats in all directions.

In order that there may be sufficient wheat with which to supply our allies and their armies, and that there may be meat sufficient to provide fighting rations for the armies of America and her associated nations in the war, the people here at home are being urged to use "substitute foods."

When the consumer goes to buy cornmeal to take the place of wheat on his wheatless day, he reports that the price of cornmeal suddenly rocketed upward until wheat has

Y. M. TOTAL WILL BE CLOSE TO $8,500

Reports Being Received by County
Chairman Indicate Early Estimate
Was Not Wrong.

COUNTY QUOTA ONLY $7,500

Sum of $8,119.15 Turned in and More is to Come—Statement of Union Township Man.

The recent reports from the townships over the county on the Y. M. C. A. fund show that the eighty-five hundred dollar mark, which was predicted for Rush county although only seventy-five hundred was asked for, will be reached. The fund raised in Rushville has come up to $2,742.05 with several small amounts still out.

Other townships which have been definitely heard from today with their final results on the campaign are Walker township reporting $445; Ripley township, which has raised $657.75; Orange township with $435.25. With these results and those published previously, Richland, Noble, Union, Center, Orange, Walker, Posey and Ripley have given final returns on the campaign. Several other townships will be heard from before the result of the drive is known.

The sum of $340 pledged by 34 high school boys who will earn their money will be added to the entire county fund for the boys in high school pledging to do this work come from all parts of the county and not this township alone. The results from the entire county reported now show that $8,119.15 has been turned in and together with the school fund and the sums not yet reported, this amount is expected to reach eighty-five hundred dollars.

A well known farmer in Union township, owning a large farm, said to one of the canvassers when asked to contribute: "No, indeed, if those soldiers are given enough to wear and eat by the government, that is all they deserve."

Such a spirit as this was rarely shown to the canvassers and would be shown more rarely if it were known that the names of such persons were immediately reported to the County Council of Defense.

An exchange will be held in the room north of the Peoples Bank on Saturday morning, given by the Epworth League of St. Paul's M. E. church.

FILES SUIT FOR RECEIVER

Dora Gwinnup Asks Accounting of
Henry Knotts—Wife Defendant

Dora Gwinnup filed suit in circuit court today against Henry Knotts and Minnie B. Gwinnup, his wife, demanding and accounting an appointment of a receiver. He alleges that Knotts has refused to allow him to sell the crops on Knott's farm, which he has been tending under the terms of an oral contract. He alleges he has an interest in the crops and says his wife is made a party to the suit because she also claims an interest in them. The complaint says they have been separated since last Sunday.

CERTIFIED TO ARMY ON EVE OF HONEYMOON

Roy M. Small, Married Yesterday
Afternoon, is Denied Exemption
by District Board Today

ON AGRICULTURAL GROUNDS

On the very eve of his honeymoon Roy M. Small, son of Mr. and Mrs. Zack T. Small of south of Carthage, who was married to Miss Helen Hale of Carthage yesterday at 4:30 p. m., was denied an exemption by the district army selection board and was certified to the army. The local board received word of the action of the district board this morning.

Mr. Small was certified to the army by the county board, having made no claim for an exemption here. He filed a claim before the district board on agricultural grounds, but this was denied by the ruling just made.

Mr. Small was the 267th man called in the county. He will likely come in the next increment which will be called soon to fill out the county's first quota of sixty-six.

LEGAL ADVISORY BOARD IS NAMED

Judge Sparks, Donald Smith and
Chauncey Duncan Appointed
to Advise Registrants

CREATED BY NEW REGULATION

The governor's office today announced the appointment of legal advisory boards for each county in the state—a new board created in connection with the selective draft by the new regulations. The board named for Rush county consists of Judge Will M. Sparks, Donald Smith and Chauncey Duncan. It is advised that the judge of the circuit court be made the chairman of the board which was done in the local case.

Section 45 of the regulations creates the board. It says that they shall be appointed "for the purpose of advising registrants of the true meaning and intent of the selective service law and of these regulations, and of assisting registrants to make full and truthful answers to the questionnaire, and to aid generally in the just administration of said law and regulations." It is urged that the board be in session at all times the selection board is in session either at the headquarters of the board or at some other convenient place or places.

TO MAKE A DRIVE FOR MEMBERSHIP

Red Cross Chapter Here Will Participate in Nation Wide Campaign Opening Dec. 17

TO CLOSE CHRISTMAS EVE

If Every County Had Per Cent Rush
County Has, There Would be
20 Million Members

The drive for membership which will be made by the local chapter of Red Cross during the week preceding Christmas in union with a nation-wide movement for members, was discussed at length at the meeting of the executive committee held in the Red Cross headquarters last evening. Heads of the departments of the chapter gave reports as to the progress of their work and the auditing committee gave a report after looking over the reports of the treasurer and secretary, showing that they were very satisfactory. A large percentage of the members of the executive committee was present and took part in the meeting, which was presided over by E. B. Thomas, chairman of the society.

Red Cross asks that ten million members be added to the society, of which there are now five million members. Locally, the chapter will endeavor to increase its membership to the maximum, but at that, it will not register as great an increase in proportion as the headquarters of the society asks for because of the large percentage of citizens already belonging to the society here. Mr. Thomas stated this morning that if every county had as many members of Red Cross in proportion to population as does Rush county, the society would already have twenty million members for Rush county has 20 per cent of its citizens as members of Red Cross.

However, everyone that should belong to Red Cross and will belong to Red Cross, has not joined. At the meeting last evening, the chairman was authorized to appoint a committee to take charge of the campaign for members. The campaign will begin December 17 and will close on Christmas eve.

The report of the auditing committee follows:

PENETRATE LINE 8 MILES AT SOME POINTS

British Continue Their Victorious
Advance, Closing in Steadily
Around Cambria.

COUNTER ATTACKS ALL FAIL

With the British Armies Behind the Hindenburg Lines, Nov. 22.—The British forces carried on the attack today with tanks, cavalry and infantry—all closing steadily around Cambria. Tanks pushed their way through the German lines. Every hour makes the British victory more gigantic in its scope.

At some points British troops this afternoon had penetrated more than eight miles. More than 10,000 Germans have been captured.

The penetration of eight miles at some points is from headquarters reports early today. By this time the indications are that the Tommies have swept on even farther.

Several counter attacks have failed to stop their progress. The German efforts were weak ones. All failed miserably before the victory-inspired onslaught of the British. The German casualties were heavy. Great numbers of German guns have been taken. No effort has been made as yet because of the very enormity of the task, to make a detailed account of prisoners and material.

TEN MEN SIGN UP FOR THE ARTILLERY

Only Seven More Days in Which Enlistments Will be Accepted For Platoon Here.

WILL BE IN FIRST BATTERY

Ten young men have definitely signed up for service in the platoon which is being organized as a part of the Second Indiana Artillery and all of those which have been examined have passed the physical examination. Five have been examined. There are only seven more days in which enlistments can be received, Byron Cowing in whose charge the government has placed the recruiting platoon stated this morning. The papers have to be in at headquarters at Indianapolis by the first of next month in order for the young men enlisted to be a part of this platoon.

The local unit will be a part of the First Battery which requires 378 men. Already over three hundred have enlisted for this battery and more are coming in every day. Indianapolis headquarters expects to have the battery up to war strength by the end of this week and the local unit will go in as a part of it. A meeting will be held at the court house this evening, in the sheriff's office, when young men interested are urged to be present. Mr. Cowing was in Milroy last evening encouraging enlistment in the platoon.

WORK ON SCIENCE HALL ABOUT DONE

New Structure Being Added to Indiana State Normal School Will be Occupied Soon.

THE BUILDING IS I-SHAPED

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 22.—Work on the new science hall of the Indiana State Normal school was nearly completed today, although it is probable that the structure will not be occupied until the first of the year.

The building is I-shaped, 133 feet long and 84 feet at its greatest width. The cost will be about $150,000. It is the sixth large building constructed for the school. It will be occupied by the chemistry, physics, botany, zoological and agriculture departments.

Chemistry desks and furniture are now being made in the industrial arts department of the normal. The desk and table tops are of alabaster stone, which is practically acid proof.

On the roof of the structure is a large green house and conservatory which will be used by the students of botany and agriculture.

The laboratories are all equipped and plumbed for distilled water, compressed air, steam, water and gas. The floors are covered with a dressing of resillite, making them acid proof also. Large store rooms for the various departments are provided.

CAMPAIGN STARTS IN PENNSYLVANIA

Dr. Jackson Starts a Winter Drive For the Conservation of Man-Power

WILL REDUCE ACCIDENTS

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 22.—Further conservation of "man-power" is the aim of a "winter drive" by safety-first workers which Dr. John Price Jackson, Pennsylvania's state commissioner of labor and industry, has launched.

Commissioner Jackson, citing the national need, has ordered every employe of his huge department "to go on the stump" personally for safety-first.

Additional safety-first rallies at large plants, rapid-fire noonday talks while the workers are lunching, addresses at individual associations and the like are all a part of Jackson's supplementary program.

State officials believe the new plan will further reduce the annual number of accidents.

JURY DELIBERATES IN THE NOYER CASE

Before the trial started, the state filed a demurrer to the defendant's plea in abatement, filed Tuesday, and was sustained with exceptions to the defendant. Noyer withdrew his plea of not guilty and made a motion to quash the affidavit, which was overruled with exceptions to the defense. Noyer was then arraigned and again pleaded not guilty. After the state rested its case, the defense orally moved for pre-emptory instructions by the court to find for Noyer, but was overruled with exceptions to the defense.

Each side was allowed 25 minutes for argument and after instructions were read by the court, the case went to the jury about 11:30 o'clock. The jury which heard the case was composed of the following men: J. J. Morrison, James H. Tarplee, W. A. Caldwell, J. A. Stevens, Charles Davis, J. W. Anderson, John F. Mapes, E. J. Farthing, Alonzo Farthing, John A. Jones, Sam Young and A. L. Chew.

BABY CONSERVATION IN MASSACHUSETTS

State Wide Campaign to Preserve Lives of Babies and Counteract Loss of Men

TO OPEN MILK STATIONS

(By United Press.)

Boston, Mass., Nov. 22.—Baby conservation—the work of saving the hundreds of tiny mites that die each year from preventable diseases has begun in Massachusetts.

Commissioner Allan J. McLaughlin of the State Department of Health has started a State-wide campaign to bring health and happiness to hundreds of babies in order that the loss of man power by ravages of war may to an extent be counteracted.

The work is being carried out after a careful study of the methods employed by the warring nations in their work of child conservation.

Among the measures to be taken are milk stations where babies will be assured of pure milk, and clinics, or private interests, where mothers will have expert care and professional advice.

Wood Cutting Profitable

An investigation of the wood fuel supply of Indiana has just been finished by Richard Lieber, Secretary of the State Board of Forestry. His inquiry included the price of coal and wood in every county in Indiana. His investigations show that the average cost of Indiana lump coal throughout Indiana on November 3, 1917, was $5.19 per ton. The average price of chestnut hard coal was $9.63. The average price of good stove wood, 16 to 22 inches in length, for a rick 8 feet long and 4 feet high, was $2.52 per rick. The average price of good block wood for heating stoves for same length and same size rick was $2.40. The average price of cutting wood is from $1.00 to $1.25 per rick. The average price of delivery is 75 cents per rick. The result of the investigation shows that in many places hard coal cannot be obtained and no wood is offered for sale.

Since a cord of good stove wood is equal in fuel value to a ton of coal, the preceding prices show that wood fuel is as cheap or cheaper than coal. The scarcity and high price of wood is a great incentive to the wood-lot owner to give his woodlot a forest cleaning, and of converting the wood in his woodlot into cash during the coming winter. The cutting of fallen timber, and of dead or dying trees, and the removal of trees that will never grow into good saw timber is called a forest cleaning. A forest cleaning gives the remaining trees a better chance to grow and they will grow faster.

The profit on a rick of wood would vary as to the cost of cutting, hauling and the price received. According to our investigation, the woodlot owner would realize from $5.00 to $12.00 per day for the labor and team. Thus it is seen that cutting wood is not only profitable, but the cutting improves the woodlot. Of recent years, since coal began to get so cheap, woodlot owners have neglected this source of income. Now, since it pays to cut wood, let every woodlot owner, as soon as the busy season is over, begin to cut wood, not only for home consumption but for sale. There is always a market for wood, and even if one has a surplus it does not spoil. Then there is the patriotic side of the question. Every time we burn a cord of wood, or induce others to do so, we have saved a ton of coal and helped release a coal car for carrying coal to our manufacturing establishments which cannot use wood, or release it for other purposes, which is of great importance in this great war crisis.

A Sugar-Saving Test

The proportion of sugar needed for making jellies depends upon the nature of the fruit. Much waste of sugar and spoiling of jelly can be avoided in manufacturing establishments by the use of a simple alcohol test devised by the Bureau of Chemistry. A spoonful of fruit juice is put into a glass and a teaspoon of 95 per cent grain alcohol is added and mixed by gentle shaking. Then pour slowly from the glass noting how the pectin (the sub-

HEARING FOR ALLEGED COAL CONSPIRATORS

Held For Disobeying Proclamation and Selling Coal in Excess of Government Prices

DR. J. D. SOURWINE COMPLAINS

(By United Press.)

Terre Haute, Nov. 22.—Four men charged with conspiracy to defeat the purpose of President Wilson's coal price fixing proclamation and selling coal in excess of the government prices were given a preliminary hearing today before United States Court Commissioner Hamill.

The coal men, all prominent in business affairs of Brazil, Ind., are: A. C. Miller, W. M. Strobel, Fred and Nick Schrepferman. The men were arrested on complaint of Dr. J. D. Sourwine who was charged $2.35 a ton for coal when the price should have been fifteen cents lower.

Arrest of these men charged with violation of the government regulations a week ago, caused a sensation here and has thrown a scare into other coal dealers who had been violating the government regulations by charging higher prices. Those who had been adding to hauling charges or retailers' profits, immediately cut down their figures when they saw that the government officials intended to prosecute vigorously.

stance in fruits which makes them jelly is precipitated. If the pectin is precipitated as one lump, a cup of sugar may be used for each cup of juices, if in several lumps the proportion must be reduced approximately three-fourths the amount of the juice. If the pectin is not in lumps, but is merely precipitated the sugar should be one-half or less of the amount of juice. If the juice shows no precipitation under this test, it is unsuitable for jelly making and must be combined with apples or other juices rich in pectin.—United States Department of Agriculture.

Freight saving is not altogether a matter of utilizing a freight car to the best advantage. The season now approaches when everybody may do his or her bit by early sending of Christmas packages. With 1,000,000 soldiers in training camps this year, the Christmas mail and express will be exceedingly heavy. There is a shortage of baggage cars and of employees for the rush season. Railroad and commercial organizations throughout the country are urging the public to do its bit in this matter. One way to help is to send your Christmas packages early. Another way is to send them after the Christmas rush.

Food saving is in its essence the daily individual service of all the people. Every group can substitute, and even the great majority of thrifty people can save a little—and the more luxurious elements of the population can, by reduction of simple living, save much. This means no more that we should eat plenty but wisely and without waste.

Merry widows should find some solace in the decision of the United States supreme court that alimony can not be considered an income and therefore is not subject to taxation.

OBITUARY

Wilbert Frederick Webber, eldest child of Jake and Lena Webber, was born in Rushville, Ind., on Nov. 24, 1900. On the evening of Nov. 13, 1917, just nine days before his seventeenth birthday, he fell asleep; to wake no more in this life. He was always of a jolly and jovial disposition, kind and loving in his home life, and ever thoughtful of those who loved him, his pleasant cordial manner, always made him friends among those he met, and his early death is mourned by a host of friends.

Yocum, Wilbert made the good confession, and was baptized, when he was fourteen years of age. His last illness was of short duration, and although his suffering was intense it was all borne with patience and courage. His short life, of seventeen years, is ended on this earth and he has entered into the joys of life everlasting. He is survived by his father and mother, one brother, Russell and one sister, Ruth. While so many of our dear boys are answering the call of their country, this dear one has answered the call of his God and is at rest.

He would order a few little things and see visions of pains, nausea, misery and everything but enjoyment when they were put before him. Much or little never failed to leave the same miserable, disagreeable, sick headachy feeling. He had to eat and suffered the consequences. He thought he was doomed to eternal chronic stomach trouble. A stranger, a good Samaritan, saw his condition; asked him the reason; offered him Pepsinco, and now a happy, smiling diner awaits the steaming dishes.

C. L. Henry Issues Statement, Settling Forth Company Has Paid No Common Stock Dividend

SMALL ONES ON PREFERRED

Higher Operating Expenses Necessitates Request, Coal Alone Costing $37,130 More

A statement from Charles L. Henry, president of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company, regarding the petition filed with the state public service commission yesterday for an increase in passenger fares, was received here today, and reveals that the company's estimates revenue derived because of the increase, if it is permitted, will only meet the operating expenses for 1918; and does not take into account any dividends whatever.

A dispatch to the Daily Republican yesterday said Mr. Henry stated not very large dividends had been paid, when as a matter of fact, the statement discloses no common stock dividends have ever been paid and only a few small dividends on preferred stock. The statement follows:

The petition just filed by this company with the Public Service Commission of Indiana asks authority to increase its interurban fares on all of its lines from a basis of 2c per mile to a basis of 2½c per mile; allowing a reduction of 5% on round trip tickets; fixing the sale of mileage books at a basis of 2c per mile and the sale of commutation books at 25 times the new one way fare for 40 trips within a month and 30 times the new one way fare for 60 trips within a month.

The petition shows that it is filed under emergency clause No. 122 of the Shively-Spencer Utility Commission Act and asks relief from the financial difficulties it is encountering on account of the increased cost of maintenance and operation growing out of the war conditions. The increase which it asks amounts on paper to 25%, but the company does not expect to realize that much actual increase in money. In fact, it only estimates that it will realize an increase of 12½% in money.

The company, in its operation, has shown a deficit for the last three years and will show a deficit for the present year, that is, it has not received from operation of the road enough money to pay operating expenses and the fixed charges against the road, namely, taxes interest on bonds, etc., and without taking into consideration in any way the capital stock of the com-

STATE APPLE MEN
DISCUSS CONDITIONS

Lack of Market Facilities Has Reduced The Industry in Indiana For Seven Years

INDIANA COULD LEAD LIST

(By United Press.)

Washington, Ind., Nov. 22.—Apple men of Indiana meeting here today in connection with the annual state apple show, discussed the question of providing suitable markets. Lack of marketing facilities long held back the development of the apple industry in Indiana, but during the last seven years, great strides have been made in the establishment of co-operative effort to create new markets.

Speakers predicted that with further increase of market facilities Indiana would lead the list of apple producing states. She now ranks fifth.

C. H. Judson of Bristol, Ind., told the apple producers how they might develop their home markets. He stated that this was a factor in the marketing problem which was often overlooked by fruit growers. He told growers to encourage sales direct to the consumers, without utilizing the services of middlemen.

pany.

No dividend has been paid on any of the capital stock since the organization of the company except the following small dividends on the preferred stock: April 1, 1911, ½ of 1%; October 1, 1911, 1¼%; October 1, 1912, 1%. The petition sets forth the necessity for the increase of fares which is occasioned by the very high increase in material and labor, the largest single item being that of coal. It shows that the company will be compelled to pay for coal in 1918, $37,130 more than during the year 1917. The estimate made in the petition is that the increase will barely bring in enough money to enable the company to pay its operating expenses and the fixed charges and will not furnish anything to be used as dividends. If the increase is granted, the total estimated net income for the year 1918, after the payment of operating expenses, would be $181,324.34. This makes no provision whatever for any dividends and would only be an income of about 6% on one-half of the amount invested in the property.

A social will be held at the Orange town hall, Thanksgiving evening, November 29th. It will be under the auspices of the Orange C. W. B. M. young ladies mission circle. Oysters, ice cream, cake, etc., will be served. 21613

Red Cross Notes

Socks and socks have been turned in at the headquarters and women and women have spent their spare moments to complete the knitting of socks for the comfort of soldiers, but to Mrs. O. L. Archer, mother of Mrs. R. A. Innis, and Mrs. J. K. Gowdy is due more than praise for their patriotism. Mrs. Archer is now knitting her fortieth pair of socks and Mrs. Gowdy has completed thirty-seven pairs. Mrs. Pinkney Dearing has finished seventeen pairs and any number of busy women have handed in five and six pairs. As to sweaters, a number of ladies have not stopped with knitting one or two but several have handed in four or five sweaters. "Pig knitters" (and by the way the term which has spread all over the state originated right here in Rushville)

Lines-Spillman Nuptials at Milroy

One of Loveliest Fall Weddings Is Solemnized at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Lines—College Friends of Bride Attend.

One of the loveliest fall weddings of the season was the one solemnized last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Lines northwest of Milroy when their daughter, Miss June Lines, became the bride of Claude Spillman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Spillman of Milroy. Massive yellow and white chrysanthemums formed the floral decoration for the spacious rooms of the pretty home which was lit throughout with candles. An altar, banked with baskets of chrysanthemums and tall cathedral candles, was formed in front of which the ceremony was performed. On each side of the altar stood a pedestal topped with an immense french basket of chrysanthemums.

An informal musical program was given while the eighty guests assembled. Miss Emily Morgan sang, "Love Here is My Heart," and Miss Ellendore Lampton sang, "Because." The wedding march was played by Miss Ruth Rainhart, a harpist, of Indianapolis. First in the bridal procession to enter were the bridegroom and his twin brother, the best man, Joseph Spillman. The bride, who was a lovely picture, entered with her father, Leroy Lines, and they were preceded by little Miss Jean Powers, flower girl, and Vetha Meek, who carried the wedding ring in a white lily. Miss Lois Blount of Indianapolis, the maid of honor, entered alone. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. J. Murr of the Methodist church of Milroy.

The bride never looked lovelier than she did in her white satin wedding gown, fashioned with lace, and the tulle veil made with a cap effect around which were buds. She carried white rose buds in a shower bouquet. The maid of honor wore a beautiful white dress and carried yellow and white chrysanthemums and the ring bearer and flower girl also wore airy white frocks.

For the service of the four course bridal supper after the ceremony, the bride's table was centered with chrysanthemums and lit with yellow and white candles. Appropriate place cards marked the places. The predominating scheme was in evidence in the yellow and white wedding bells of ice cream which were served as the last course. Mr. Spillman has taken his bride to Chicago for a wedding trip after which they will be at home in Milroy, where Mr. Spillman is assistant postmaster.

The bride, Mrs. Spillman, is one of Milroy's best known young ladies. She is a graduate of Milroy high school and attended Butler college where she was a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Among the eighty guests attending the wedding were a number of the bride's college friends. The out-of-town guests included the Misses Margaret Rose, Mary Padow, Helen Jackson, Elizabeth Cooper, might try to come up to the goal set by some of these patriotic women, who realize the need of our soldiers and sailors, before starting in on their bright blues and purples and red shades of yarn for someone who can well keep warm with out them.

Catherine Clifford, Cordelia Higgins, Luella Nelson, Muriel Tillingham, Kathryn Burton, Gladys Lewis, Dorothy Bowzer, Helen Tichenor, Elizabeth Moore, Lois Blount, Helen Berry, and Mr. and Mrs. Cooper of Indianapolis.

Three little girls of this city have shown true patriotism lately by their donations to the Red Cross society. Florence Lambert, Jessie Allen and Estelle Poston have conducted lemonade and sandwich stands recently in which they netted $2.26. The entire proceeds of their project has gone to Red Cross. Being the first children to conduct such benefit stands, it is probable that their good example will be followed by others.

No woman of her age has been a greater aid to the Red Cross society than has Mrs. Eunice Moor of North Main street. Mrs. Moor has already knit for the Red Cross society seventeen pairs of socks, eight pairs of pulswarmers, eleven rugs, three washrags and has hemmed six handkerchiefs.

The latest instructions for the knitting of sweaters say that they should measure 22 inches to the neck, including the four inches of purling, and be knit loosely enough to measure a good 17 inches across.

The new supply of yarn has not yet been received.

Amusements

There is a strong appeal to patriotism in "The Message of the Mouse," which will be the attraction at the Princess theatre this evening.

Five foreign ambassadors, representing as many bankrupt nations, formulate a plan to divert 20 billions of capital from America for use in the rebuilding of their countries.

The conspirators' hopes lie in winning Henry Winthrop and his associates, representing billions of capital, from an American marine proposition to an international steamship trust, offering unprecedented concessions as bait. As a preliminary to their proposal, they seek to learn the plans of the American syndicate and in order to obtain this information, employ an unscrupulous intriguer, Hallam Varr, known as "The Lily."

George Walsh, the handsome little athlete of the movies, appears at the Gem this evening in "The Book Agent." His art will be worked in as he plays the part of the agent. Tomorrow afternoon and evening, "Railroad Raiders" and "The Perils of our Girl Reporter" will be shown both of which are interesting and thrilling films.

NOTHING TO HINDER ALLEY IMPROVEMENT

Judge Sparks Has Sustained City's Demurrer to Paragraphs of Remonstrators Complaint

CITY TO MOVE FOR JUDGMENT

By sustaining a demurrer of the city of Rushville in the circuit court to the second paragraph of the complaint of property owners who objected to the alley running from Fifth to Sixth streets and lying between Main and Perkins street, being paved, Judge Sparks has opened the way for the contractor, Tom Cauley to go ahead with the contract.

This step was taken last term of court and since the remonstrators have failed to plead further, the city will move for judgment on the court's ruling so the improvement may proceed.

The second paragraph of the complaint of the remonstrators alleged that the improvement could not be made because the paving could not be put down according to plans and specifications, which call for a width of sixteen feet. It was a demurrer to this allegation that the court has just overruled.

It is the second defeat for the remonstrators in the circuit court. They first declared that the procedure of the city in passing the improvement resolution as illegal, but the court ruled against them on that score too.

Days Pickings

The funeral services of Melvin Brooks will be held at the Christian church Friday afternoon at 2:00.

Miss Ruth Jessop will give a play at Connersville December 27 for the benefit of the Fayette county chapter of the Red Cross. All proceeds will go to that organization. The play, which has twenty-five in the cast, is French and costumed accordingly.

Services preparatory to the communion service will be held at the United Presbyterian church tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. D. Ira Lambert will preach at this time and all of the congregation and friends of the church are invited to attend.

Ozro Kirkham filed suit today in circuit court against Ray Kellam and John K. Smith, alleging the defendants did not carry out their contract to deliver him 800 bushels of corn at $1.55 a bushel. They delivered only 735 bushels, he says, and he claims $150 damage because of his loss on account of the advance in the price of corn.

JURY DELIBERATES IN THE NOYER CASE

No Verdict Late Today After Trial
For Operating Automobile
Without Indiana License

MANY MOTIONS OVERRULED

Six Criminal Cases Are Dismissed
Today For Lack of Evidence
And Want of Prosecution.

The jury was still deliberating in circuit court at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon in the trial of R. W. Noyer, accused of operating an automobile here with an Ohio license. The state contended he violated the state law providing a license other than one issued by this state can not be used more than sixty days. The jury received the case at 11:30 o'clock today.

Six criminal cases were dismissed today for the lack of evidence and the want of prosecution. Charges of gaming against James Brooks, John S. Beale and Albert Norrell were dismissed because a former jury returned a verdict of not guilty on the same evidence on which these cases were based. The same reasons were given for the dismissal of the charge of keeping a gaming house against John S. Beale and the charge of renting a house for gaming purposes against P. A. Miller. The case of the state against Owen Rodney for defrauding an inn keeper was dismissed for the want of prosecution.

R. W. Noyer, the defendant in the criminal case on trial, testified that he had been a resident of the city since May 1 when he took charge of a local newspaper. His attorney, Will Newbold, also brought out in the testimony that he had an Ohio license on his automobile.

Noyer was arrested on August 22 and the state contended that, according to a state law, an automobile can be operated on another state license for only sixty days. Chief of Police Yakey and Police-men Seward and Newhouse testified that they had known Noyer since some time in May and that they had seen him operating his machine with an Ohio license on it. They were the only witnesses for the state and Noyer was the only defense witness. The defense did not attempt to deny that Noyer had operated an automobile more than sixty days here with an Ohio license.

M. F. LOVETT COUNTY FOOD ADMINISTRATOR

Former Carthage Grocer is One of Eighty-Five Named in the State Today

RECOMMENDED WEEKS AGO

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 22.—The first decisive step toward wholesale price regulation and food control in Indiana was taken today with the appointment of county food administrators in eighty-five counties. The administrators will be responsible for law enforcement in their counties.

They will have charge of dealers operating under federal licenses and enforcement of uniform and reasonable food prices which will be fixed by the state administrator in the near future.

Among the administrators were: Rush county, M. F. Lovett.

M. L. Lovett is a retired grocer of Carthage. He was recommended by the County Council of Defense several weeks ago and his appointment has been expected for a long time. Mr. Lovett was in the grocery business at Carthage many years and retired more than a year ago.

EARL GREGORY IN FRANCE

Rushville Boy With 54th Aero
Squadron Arrives Safely.

Earl Gregory, son of Mrs. Lizzie Gregory, of the 54th Aero Squadron, has safely reached France, according to the letter received today by his mother. Nothing definite could be said in the letter. He said, however, that he was "some place across the ocean" that he was feeling fine and was lucky enough not to be seasick. He stated that he was to take another examination and that after that he would probably be put at his own trade, that of a machinist. He would act as a machinist in the aviation corps. Mr. Gregory left this country October 13 and this is the first that his folks have heard from him since that time.

IS ARRESTED FOR ISSUING BAD CHECK

Paul Spacey, Employed by Ellis
Culbertson, is Indicted by Grand
Jury at Connersville

SIGNS HIS NAME J. W. SPACEY

Carl Spacey, employed by Ellis Culbertson living a mile south of Glenwood, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Sheriff Cavitt for issuing a fraudulent check. He was indicted by the Payette county grand jury at Connersville and the bench warrant was sent here for his arrest. It is said that he issued a check to a Connersville saloon keeper in payment for a bill with no funds in the bank.

Spacey signed his name to the check "J. W. Spacey." When the warrant for his arrest came, Sheriff Cavitt for a time could not locate him. He remembered a man named Spacey worked for George Reeves and he went there. Mr. Reeves said Spacey was now working for Culbertson and the sheriff and the Connersville saloon keeper immediately went to the Culbertson farm. They found Spacey and he was identified by the saloon keeper. Spacey is said to have admitted his guilt.

JURY ACQUITS RALPH MILES IN 25 MINUTES

Holds in Effect Administering Serum
And Virus is Not Practicing
Veterinary Medicine

WAS PRIMARILY A TEST CASE

Ralph Miles of Raleigh, who was charged in an affidavit filed by the state board of veterinary examiners through its secretary, Emmett Davis, of practicing veterinary medicine and surgery without a license, was acquitted by a jury in the circuit court late Wednesday after only twenty-five minutes in deliberation.

The case was primarily to test the question as to whether or not it is unlawful for anyone not holding a veterinary's license to administer serum and virus for the prevention of hog cholera. The evidence showed that Mr. Miles had administered serum and virus to about 26,400 hogs this fall; that all of them have done well and have given satisfaction to the owners. By deciding for the defendant, the jury in effect held that the administration of serum and virus was not practicing veterinary medicine and surgery.

Mr. Miles for some time has been the local representative of the Swine Breeder's Pure Serum company, whose laboratories and plant is located at Thorntown, Ind. The prosecuting attorney, A. C. Stevens, was assisted by John A. Tiltworth and Douglas Morris. T. M. Green and S. L. Trabue represented the defendant.

TEACHERS TO HEAR Y. M. TOTAL WILL PRACTICAL TALKS BE CLOSE TO $8,500

Emphasis to be Laid on Agriculture
at 23rd Annual Meeting of
Rush County Association

TO BE HELD HERE SATURDAY

At Least 240 Teachers Are Expected
and Any Persons Interested
Are Invited

One hundred and forty Rush county teachers are expected to be in the city Saturday for the twenty-third annual session of the Rush county teacher's association, which will be held in the Graham high school building. Aside from the teachers, all persons interested in education are invited to attend the sessions, the morning session beginning at 9 o'clock and the afternoon session at one o'clock. J. H. Francis, superintendent of the schools of Columbus, Ohio, is to be the principal speaker before the institute. Mr. Francis has had experience in educational movements and comes highly recommended as a talker.

During the morning session the following numbers will be given: devotional exercises by the Rev. C. S. Black; music by the high school girls Glee Club; lecture by J. H. Francis on "Education Fundamentals," talk on "Teaching the New Agriculture," by Fred Mutchler; and talk on "Writing," by J. H. Bahtenkircher.

The program for the afternoon session follows: violin solo by C. E. Parke; lecture on "Leisure Time of American Boys and Girls," by J. H. Francis; talk on "Teaching the New Agriculture," by Mr. Mutchler followed by another talk on writing by Mr. Bahtenkircher. A business session will close the meeting.

Emphasis in the association meetings will be laid on the new agricultural methods because of the nation-wide movement to urge the young people to do their share in increasing America's output in food-stuffs. Mr. Mutchler is well posted in this line of work and can give the latest methods which should be taught the young people who can take up farming. Mr. Mutchler comes from the college of agriculture in the university of Kentucky at Lexington and Mr. Bahtenkircher teaches in the penmanship department of the Lafayette schools.

Asks Reports on Soaring Of All Substitute Foods

Council of Defense Says Dealers
Who Increase Them Will Feel
Teeth of Food Law

NO "ADULTERATED POULTRY"

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 22.—Food authorities are having their attention called to the higher cost of "substitute foods." The essence of the war time food campaign is the argument in favor of substituting, on the American table, cornmeal for wheat, nuts and fish and poultry for meats and the saving of fats in all directions.

In order that there may be sufficient wheat with which to supply our allies and their armies, and that there may be meat sufficient to provide fighting rations for the armies of America and her associated nations in the war, the people here at home are being urged to use "substitute foods."

When the consumer goes to buy cornmeal to take the place of wheat in his wheatless day, he reports that the price of cornmeal suddenly has shot upward until wheat has become much the cheaper diet.

The order of fish that formerly sold for 15 cents in the dairy lunch room, becomes a 25 cent order on meatless day. It is in this way the "higher cost of substitute foods" becomes a serious question for the consideration of the Hoover Food Administration. Cornmeal at 10 cents a pound has become just as important to the consumer as $20 pork or the $20 barrel of flour.

The Indiana State Council of Defense requests that all reports of price sky-rocketing, especially as pertains to substitute foods recommended in the save-wheat, save-fats campaign be reported promptly to the end that there be some truly "horrible examples" made of the guilty, who will certainly feel the teeth of the food control law.

Sales of "adulterated poultry" in Indiana may bring grief to the dealers. An official order by Dr. Harry E. Barnard, state food and drug commissioner and federal food administrator for Indiana, sets forth a limitation of two ounces as the maximum of feed per head, permissible when the fowl is weighed for a buyer, to make the deal legitimate.

FILES SUIT FOR RECEIVER

Dora Gwinnup Asks Accounting of
Henry Knotts—Wife Defendant

Dora Gwinnup filed suit in circuit court today against Henry Knotts and Minnie B. Gwinnup, his wife, demanding and accounting an appointment of a receiver. He alleges that Knotts has refused to allow him to sell the crops on Knott's farm, which he has been tending under the terms of an oral contract. He alleges he has an interest in the crops and says his wife is made a party to the suit because she also claims an interest in them. The complaint says they have been separated since last Sunday.

CERTIFIED TO ARMY ON EVE OF HONEYMOON

Roy M. Small, Married Yesterday
Afternoon, is Denied Exemption
by District Board Today

ON AGRICULTURAL GROUNDS

On the very eve of his honeymoon Roy M. Small, son of Mr. and Mrs. Zack T. Small of south of Carthage, who was married to Miss Helen Hale of Carthage yesterday at 4:30 p. m., was denied an exemption by the district army selection board and was certified to the army. The local board received word of the action of the district board this morning.

Mr. Small was certified to the army by the county board, having made no claim for an exemption here. He filed a claim before the district board on agricultural grounds, but this was denied by the ruling just made.

Mr. Small was the 267th man called in the county. He will likely come in the next increment which will be called soon to fill out the county's first quota of sixty-six.

LEGAL ADVISORY BOARD IS NAMED

Judge Sparks, Donald Smith and
Chauncey Duncan Appointed
to Advise Registrants

CREATED BY NEW REGULATION

The governor's office today announced the appointment of legal advisory boards for each county in the state—a new board created in connection with the selective draft by the new regulations. The board named for Rush county consists of Judge Will M. Sparks, Donald Smith and Chauncey Duncan. It is advised that the judge of the circuit court be made the chairman of the board which was done in the local case.

Section 45 of the regulations creates the board. It says that they shall be appointed "for the purpose of advising registrants of the true meaning and intent of the selective service law and of these regulations, and of assisting registrants to make full and truthful answers to the questionnaire, and to aid generally in the just administration of said law and regulations." It is urged that the board be in session at all times the selection board is in session either at the headquarters of the board or at some other convenient place or places.

TO MAKE A DRIVE FOR MEMBERSHIP

Red Cross Chapter Here Will Participate in Nation Wide Campaign Opening Dec. 17

TO CLOSE CHRISTMAS EVE

If Every County Had Per Cent Rush County Has, There Would be 20 Million Members

The drive for membership which will be made by the local chapter of Red Cross during the week preceding Christmas in union with a nation-wide movement for members, was discussed at length at the meeting of the executive committee held in the Red Cross headquarters last evening. Heads of the departments of the chapter gave reports as to the progress of their work and the auditing committee gave a report after looking over the reports of the treasurer and secretary, showing that they were very satisfactory. A large percentage of the members of the executive committee was present and took part in the meeting, which was presided over by E. B. Thomas, chairman of the society.

Red Cross asks that ten million members be added to the society, of which there are now five million members. Locally, the chapter will endeavor to increase its membership to the maximum, but at that, it will not register as great an increase in proportion as the headquarters of the society asks for because of the large percentage of citizens already belonging to the society here. Mr. Thomas stated this morning that if every county had as many members of Red Cross in proportion to population as does Rush county, the society would already have twenty million members for Rush county has 20 per cent of its citizens as members of Red Cross.

However, everyone that should belong to Red Cross, has not joined. At the meeting last evening, the chairman was authorized to appoint a committee to take charge of the campaign for members. The campaign will begin December 17 and will close on Christmas eve. The report of the auditing committee follows:

PENETRATE LINE 8 MILES AT SOME POINTS

British Continue Their Victorious
Advance, Closing in Steadily
Around Cambria.

COUNTER ATTACKS ALL FAIL

With the British Armies Behind the Hindenburg Lines, Nov. 22.—The British forces carried on the attack today with tanks, cavalry and infantry—all closing steadily around Cambria. Tanks pushed their way through the German lines. Every hour makes the British victory more gigantic in its scope.

At some points British troops this afternoon had penetrated more than eight miles. More than 10,000 Germans have been captured.

The penetration of eight miles at some points is from headquarters reports early today. By this time the indications are that the Tommies have swept on even farther.

Several counter attacks have failed to stop their progress. The German efforts were weak ones. All failed miserably before the victory-inspired onslaught of the British. The German casualties were heavy. Great numbers of German guns have been taken. No effort has been made as yet because of the very enormity of the task, to make a detailed account of prisoners and material.

TEN MEN SIGN UP FOR THE ARTILLERY

Only Seven More Days in Which Enlistments Will be Accepted For Platoon Here.

WILL BE IN FIRST BATTERY

Ten young men have definitely signed up for service in the platoon which is being organized as a part of the Second Indiana Artillery and all of those which have been examined have passed the physical examination. Five have been examined. There are only seven more days in which enlistments can be received. Byron Cowing in whose charge the government has placed the recruiting platoon stated this morning. The papers have to be in at headquarters at Indianapolis by the first of next month in order for the young men enlisted to be a part of this platoon.

The local unit will be a part of the First Battery which requires 378 men. Already over three hundred have enlisted for this battery and more are coming in every day. Indianapolis headquarters expects to have the battery up to war strength by the end of this week and the local unit will go in as a part of it. A meeting will be held at the court house this evening, in the sheriff's office, when young men interested are urged to be present. Mr. Cowing was in Milroy last evening encouraging enlistment in the platoon.

WORK ON SCIENCE HALL ABOUT DONE

New Structure Being Added to Indiana State Normal School Will be Occupied Soon.

THE BUILDING IS I-SHAPED

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 22—Work on the new science hall of the Indiana State Normal school was nearly completed today, although it is probable that the structure will not be occupied until the first of the year.

The building is I-shaped, 133 feet long and 84 feet at its greatest width. The cost will be about $150,000. It is the sixth large building constructed for the school. It will be occupied by the chemistry, physics, botany, zoological and agriculture departments.

Chemistry desks and furniture are now being made in the industrial arts department of the normal. The desk and table tops are of alabaster stone, which is practically acid proof.

On the roof of the structure is a large green house and conservatory which will be used by the students of botany and agriculture.

The laboratories are all equipped and plumbed for distilled water, compressed air, steam, water and gas. The floors are covered with a dressing of resillite, making them acid proof also. Large store rooms for the various departments are provided.

CAMPAIGN STARTS IN PENNSYLVANIA

Dr. Jackson Starts a Winter Drive For the Conservation of Man-Power

WILL REDUCE ACCIDENTS

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 22.—Further conservation of "man-power" is the aim of a "winter drive" by safety-first workers which Dr. John Price Jackson, Pennsylvania's state commissioner of labor and industry, has launched.

Commissioner Jackson, citing the national need, has ordered every employe of his huge department "to go on the stump" personally for safety-first.

Additional safety-first rallies at large plants, rapid-fire noonday talks while the workers are lunching, addresses at individual associations and the like are all a part of Jackson's supplementary program.

State officials believe the new plan will further reduce the annual number of accidents.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR A COMPROMISE OFF

Russian Parties Can Not Get Together and Commander-in-Chief is Deposed

REFUSES TO MAKE ARMISTICE

(By United Press.)

Copenhagen, Nov. 22.—The Bolshevik press agent declared in a message received here from Haparanda today that "All of Kerensky's troops have surrendered."

London, Nov. 22.—Foreign minister Trotsky of the Russian Bolshevik forces sent a message to all of the allies asking a revision of the war aim. If the request is not answered Russia will be justified in making a separate peace.

Petrograd, Nov. 22.—All negotiations for a compromise coalition government were off today.

A majority of the government employees have refused to continue their work under the Maximalist. The twelfth Russian army is on the verge of starvation. Trouble was predicted until transportation difficulties were remedied and food sent at once.

The peoples commissary today directed the commander-in-chief of the Russian forces to negotiate for an armistice. The general refused and was deposed.

Before the trial started, the state filed a demurrer to the defendant's plea in abatement, filed Tuesday, and was sustained with exceptions to the defendant. Noyer withdrew his plea of not guilty and made a motion to quash the affidavit, which was overruled with exceptions to the defense. Noyer was then arraigned and again pleaded not guilty. After the state rested its case, the defense orally moved for pre-emptory instructions by the court to find for Noyer, but was overruled with exceptions to the defense.

Each side was allowed 25 minutes for argument and after instructions were read by the court, the case went to the jury about 11:30 o'clock. The jury which heard the case was composed of the following men: J. J. Morrison, James H. Tarplee, W. A. Caldwell, J. A. Stevens, Charles Davis, J. W. Anderson, John P. Mapes, E. J. Farthing, Alonzo Farthing, John A. Jones, Sam Young, and A. L. Chew.

BABY CONSERVATION IN MASSACHUSETTS

State Wide Campaign to Preserve Lives of Babies and Counteract Loss of Men

TO OPEN MILK STATIONS

(By United Press.)

Boston, Mass., Nov. 22.—Baby conservation—the work of saving the hundreds of tiny mites that die each year from preventable diseases has begun in Massachusetts.

Commissioner Allan J. McLaughlin of the State Department of Health has started a "State-wide campaign to bring health and happiness to hundreds of babies in order that the loss of man power by ravages of war may to an extent be counteracted."

The work is being carried out after a careful study of the methods employed by the warring nations in their work of child conservation.

Among the measures to be taken are milk stations where babies will be assured of pure milk, and clinics, or private interests, where mothers will have expert care and professional advice.

AMERICA ALWAYS FIRST

Wood Cutting Profitable
An investigation of the wood fuel supply of Indiana has just been finished by Richard Lieber, Secretary of the State Board of Forestry. His inquiry included the price of coal and wood in every county in Indiana. His investigations show that the average cost of Indiana lump coal throughout Indiana on November 3, 1917, was $5.19 per ton. The average price of chestnut hard coal was $9.63. The average price of good stove wood, 16 to 22 inches in length, for a rick 8 feet long and 4 feet high, was $2.32 per rick. The average price of good block wood for heating stoves for same length and same size rick was $2.40. The average price of cutting wood is from $1.00 to $1.25 per rick. The average price of delivery is 75 cents per rick. The result of the investigation shows that in many places hard coal cannot be obtained and no wood is offered for sale.

Since a cord of good stove wood is equal in fuel value to a ton of coal, the preceding prices show that wood fuel is as cheap or cheaper than coal. The scarcity and high price of wood is a great incentive to the wood-lot owner to give his woodlot a forest cleaning, and of converting the wood in his woodlot into cash during the coming winter. The cutting of fallen timber, and of dead or dying trees, and the removal of trees that will never grow into good saw timber is called a forest cleaning. A forest cleaning gives the remaining trees a better chance to grow and they will grow faster.

The profit on a rick of wood would vary as to the cost of cutting, hauling and the price received. According to our investigation, the woodlot owner would realize from $5.00 to $12.00 per day for the labor and team. Thus it is seen that cutting wood is not only profitable, but the cutting improves the woodlot. Of recent years, since coal began to get so cheap, woodlot owners have neglected this source of income. Now, since it pays to cut wood, let every woodlot owner, as soon as the busy season is over, begin to cut wood, not only for home consumption but for sale. There is always a market for wood, and even if one has a surplus it does not spoil.

Then there is the patriotic side of the question. Every time we burn a cord of wood, or induce others to do so, we have saved a ton of coal and helped release a coal car for carrying coal to our manufacturing plants which cannot use wood, or release it for other purposes, which is of great importance in this great war crisis.

A Sugar-Saving Test
The proportion of sugar needed for making jellies depends upon the nature of the fruit. Much waste of sugar and spoiling of jelly can be avoided in manufacturing establishments by the use of a simple alcohol test devised by the Bureau of Chemistry. A spoonful of fruit juice is put into a glass and a teaspoon of 95 per cent grain alcohol is added and mixed by gentle shaking. Then pour slowly from the glass, noting how the pectin (the substance in fruits which makes them

HEARING FOR ALLEGED COAL CONSPIRATORS

Held For Disobeying Proclamation and Selling Coal in Excess of Government Prices

DR. J. D. SOURWINE COMPLAINS

(By United Press.)
Terre Haute, Nov. 22.—Four men charged with conspiracy to defeat the purpose of President Wilson's coal price fixing proclamation and selling coal in excess of the government prices were given a preliminary hearing today before United States Court Commissioner Hamill. The coal men, all prominent in business affairs of Brazil, Ind., are: A. C. Miller, W. M. Strobel, Fred and Nick Schrepferman. The men were arrested on complaint of Dr. J. D. Sourwine who was charged $2.35 a ton for coal when the price should have been fifteen cents lower. Arrest of these men charged with violation of the government regulations a week ago, caused a sensation here and has thrown a scare into other coal dealers who had been violating the government regulations by charging higher prices. Those who had been adding to hauling charges or retailers' profits, immediately cut down their figures when they saw that the government officials intended to prosecute vigorously.

stance in fruits which makes them jelly) is precipitated. If the pectin is precipitated as one lump, a cup of sugar may be used for each cup of juices, if in several lumps the proportion must be reduced approximately three-fourths the amount of the juice. If the pectin is not in lumps, but is merely precipitated the sugar should be one-half or less of the amount of juice. If the juice shows no precipitation under this test, it is unsuitable for jelly making and must be combined with apples or other juices rich in pectin.—United States Department of Agriculture.

Freight saving is not altogether a matter of utilizing a freight car to the best advantage. The season now approaches when everybody may do his or her bit by early sending of Christmas packages. With 1,000,000 soldiers in training camps this year, the Christmas mail and express will be exceedingly heavy. There is a shortage of baggage cars and of employees for the rush season. Railroad and commercial organizations throughout the country are urging the public to do its bit in this matter. One way to help is to send your Christmas packages early. Another way is to send them after the Christmas rush.

Food saving is in its essence the daily individual service of all the people. Every group can substitute, and even the great majority of thrifty people can save a little—and the more luxurious elements of the population can, by reduction of simple living, save much. This means no more that we should eat plenty but wisely and without waste.

Merry widows should find some solace in the decision of the United States supreme court that alimony can not be considered an income and therefore is not subject to taxation.

HE NOW LAUGHS AT THE MEN AT THE TABLE.

This Man Was Always Ill at Ease While Waiting for His Dinner, Until—Pepsinco.

He would order a few little things and see visions of pains, nausea, misery and everything but enjoyment when they were put before him. Much or little never failed to leave the same miserable, disagreeable, sick headachy feeling. He had to eat and suffered the consequences.

He thought he was doomed to eternal chronic stomach trouble. He doctored, used many remedies, but no help.

A stranger, a good Samaritan, saw his condition; asked him the reason; offered him Pepsinco, and now a happy, smiling diner awaits the steaming dishes.

If your stomach bothers; if your food sours or disagrees with you; if pains follow a meal and sick headache is a rule, stop at the drug store and get a small package of Pepsinco now today. It is a positive remedy for bad stomachs.

OBITUARY.
Wilbert Frederick Webber, eldest child of Jake and Lena Webber, was born in Rushville, Ind., on Nov. 24, 1900. On the evening of Nov. 15, 1917, just nine days before his seventeenth birthday, he fell asleep to wake no more in this life. He was always of a jolly and jovial disposition, kind and loving in his home life, and ever thoughtful of those who loved him, his pleasant cordial manner, always made him friends among those he met, and his early death is mourned by a host of friends.
During the minority of Bro. C. M. Yocum, Wilbert made the good confession, and was baptized, when he was fourteen years of age. His last illness was of short duration, and although his suffering was intense it was all borne with patience and courage. His short life, of seventeen years, is ended on this earth and he has entered into the joys of life everlasting. He is survived by his father and mother, one brother, Russell and one sister, Ruth.
While so many of our dear boys are answering the call of their country, this dear one has answered the call of his God and is at rest.

C. L. Henry Issues Statement, Settling Forth Company Has Paid No Common Stock Dividend

SMALL ONES ON PREFERRED

Higher Operating Expenses Necessitates Request, Coal Alone Costing $37,130 More

A statement from Charles L. Henry, president of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company, regarding the petition filed with the state public service commission yesterday for an increase in passenger fares, was received here today, and reveals that the company's estimates revenue derived because of the increase, if it is permitted, will only meet the operating expenses for 1918; and does not take into account any dividends whatever.

A dispatch to the Daily Republican yesterday said Mr. Henry stated not very large dividends had been paid, when as a matter of fact, the statement discloses no common stock dividends have ever been paid and only a few small dividends on preferred stock. The statement follows:

The petition just filed by this company with the Public Service Commission of Indiana asks authority to increase its interurban fares on all of its lines from a basis of 2c per mile to a basis of 2½c per mile; allowing a reduction of 5% on round trip tickets; fixing the sale of mileage books at a basis of 2c per mile and the sale of commutation books at 25 times the new one way fare for 40 trips within a month and 30 times the new one way fare for 60 trips within a month.

The petition shows that it is filed under emergency clause No. 122 of the Shively-Spencer Utility Commission Act and asks relief from the financial difficulties it is encountering on account of the increased cost of maintenance and operation growing out of the war conditions. The increase which it asks amounts on paper to 25%, but the company does not expect to realize that much actual increase in money. In fact, it only estimates that it will realize an increase of 12½% in money.

The company, in its operation, has shown a deficit for the last three years and will show a deficit for the present year, that is, it has not received from operation of the road enough money to pay operating expenses and the fixed charges against the road, namely, taxes, interest on bonds, etc., and without taking into consideration in any way the capital stock of the com-

STATE APPLE MEN
DISCUSS CONDITIONS

Lack of Market Facilities Has Reduced The Industry in Indiana For Seven Years

INDIANA COULD LEAD LIST

(By United Press.)

Washington, Ind., Nov. 22.—Apple men of Indiana meeting here today in connection with the annual state apple show, discussed the question of providing suitable markets. Lack of marketing facilities long held back the development of the apple industry in Indiana, but during the last seven years, great strides have been made in the establishment of co-operative effort to create new markets.

Speakers predicted that with further increase of market facilities Indiana would lead the list of apple producing states. She now ranks fifth.

C. H. Judson of Bristol, Ind., told the apple producers how they might develop their home markets. He stated that this was a factor in the marketing problem which was often overlooked by fruit growers. He told growers to encourage sales direct to the consumers, without utilizing the services of middlemen.

No dividend has been paid on any of the capital stock since the organization of the company except the following small dividends on the preferred stock: April 1, 1911, ½ of 1%; October 1, 1911, 1½%; October 1, 1912, 1%. The petition sets forth the necessity for the increase of fares which is occasioned by the very high increase in material and labor, the largest single item being that of coal. It shows that the company will be compelled to pay for coal in 1918, $37,130 more than during the year 1917. The estimate made in the petition is that the increase will barely bring in enough money to enable the company to pay its operating expenses and the fixed charges and will not furnish anything to be used as dividends. If the increase is granted, the total estimated net income for the year 1918, after the payment of operating expenses, would be $181,324.34. This makes no provision whatever for any dividends and would only be an income of about 6% on one-half of the amount invested in the property.

A social will be held at the Orange town hall, Thanksgiving evening, November 29th. It will be under the auspices of the Orange C. W. B. M. young ladies mission circle. Oysters, ice cream, cake, etc., will be served. 21613

TO HAVE USUAL VACATION

School Children Will be Dismissed Wednesday For Thanksgiving

The schools of the city will be dismissed on Wednesday afternoon of next week for the regular Thanksgiving vacation extending over Thursday and Friday. The vacation is being given by the school authorities in spite of the time that has been lost by the quarantine. Appropriate Thanksgiving programs will be given in practically all of the schools prior to the vacation. The making up of time by beginning school early has been very successful and it is thought before long the pupils will catch up in their studies, where they should have been had there been no quarantine.

Lines-Spillman Nuptials at Milroy

One of Loveliest Fall Weddings Is Solemnized at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Lines— College Friends of Bride Attend.

One of the loveliest fall weddings of the season was the one solemnized last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Lines northwest of Milroy when their daughter, Miss June Lines, became the bride of Claude Spillman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Spillman of Milroy. Massive yellow and white chrysanthemums formed the floral decoration for the spacious rooms of the pretty home which was lit throughout with candles. An altar, banked with baskets of chrysanthemums and tall cathedral candles, was formed in front of which the ceremony was performed. On each side of the altar stood a pedestal topped with an immense french basket of chrysanthemums.

An informal musical program was given while the eighty guests assembled. Miss Emily Morgan sang, "Love Here is My Heart," and Miss Ellendore Lupton sang, "Because." The wedding march was played by Miss Ruth Rainhart, a harpist, of Indianapolis. First in the bridal procession to enter were the bridegroom and his twin brother, the best man, Joseph Spillman. The bride, who was a lovely picture, entered with her father, Leroy Lines, and they were preceded by little Miss Jean Powers, flower girl, and Vetha Meek, who carried the wedding ring in a white lily. Miss Lois Blount of Indianapolis, the maid of honor, entered alone. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. J. Murr of the Methodist church of Milroy.

The bride never looked lovelier than she did in her white satin wedding gown, fashioned with lace, and the tulle veil made with a cap effect around which were buds. She carried white rose buds in a shower bouquet. The maid of honor wore a beautiful white dress and carried yellow and white chrysanthemums and the ring bearer and flower girl also wore airy white frocks.

For the service of the four course bridal supper after the ceremony, the bride's table was centered with chrysanthemums and lit with yellow and white candles. Appropriate place cards marked the places. The predominating scheme was in evidence in the yellow and white wedding bells of ice cream which were served as the last course. Mr. Spillman has taken his bride to Chicago for a wedding trip after which they will be at home in Milroy, where Mr. Spillman is assistant postmaster.

The bride, Mrs. Spillman, is one of Milroy's best known young ladies. She is a graduate of Milroy high school and attended Butler college where she was a member of the Delta might try to come up to the goal set by some of these patriotic women, who realize the need of our soldiers and sailors, before starting in on their bright blues and purples and red shades of yarn for someone who can well keep warm with out them.

Three little girls of this city have shown true patriotism lately by their donations to the Red Cross society. Florence Lambert, Jessie Allen and Estelle Poston have conducted lemonade and sandwich stands recently in which they netted $2.26. The entire proceeds of their project has gone to Red Cross. Being the first children to conduct such benefit stands, it is probable that their good example will be followed by others.

No woman of her age has been a greater aid to the Red Cross society than has Mrs. Eunice Moor of North Main street. Mrs. Moor has already knit for the Red Cross society seventeen pairs of socks, eight pairs of pulswarmers, eleven rugs, three washrags and has hemmed six handkerchiefs.

The latest instructions for the knitting of sweaters say that they should measure 22 inches to the neck, including the four inches of purling, and be knit loosely enough to measure a good 17 inches across.

The new supply of yarn has not yet been received.

Amusements

There is a strong appeal to patriotism in "The Message of the Mouse," which will be the attraction at the Princess theatre this evening.

Five foreign ambassadors, representing as many bankrupt nations, formulate a plan to divert 20 billions of capital from America for use in the rebuilding of their countries.

The conspirators' hopes lie in winning Henry Winthrop and his associates, representing billions of capital, from an American marine proposition to an international steamship trust, offering unprecedented concessions as bait. As a preliminary to their proposal, they seek to learn the plans of the American syndicate and in order to obtain this information, employ an unsuspicious intruder, Hallam Varr, known as "The Lily."

George Walsh, the handsome little athlete of the movies, appears at the Gem this evening in "The Book Agent." His art will be worked in as he plays the part of the agent. Tomorrow afternoon and evening, "Railroad Raiders" and "The Perils of our Girl Reporter" will be shown both of which are interesting and thrilling films.

ALLEY IMPROVEMENT

Judge Sparks Has Sustained City's Demurrer's to Paragraphs of Remonstrators Complaint

CITY TO MOVE FOR JUDGMENT

By sustaining a demurrer of the city of Rushville in the circuit court to the second paragraph of the complaint of property owners who objected to the alley running from Fifth to Sixth streets and lying between Main and Perkins street, being paved, Judge Sparks has opened the way for the contractor, Tom Canley to go ahead with the contract.

This step was taken last term of court and since the remonstrators have failed to plead further, the city will move for judgment on the court's ruling so the improvement may proceed.

The second paragraph of the complaint of the remonstrators alleged that the improvement could not be made because the paving could not be put down according to plans and specifications, which call for a width of sixteen feet. It was a demurrer to this allegation that the court has just overruled.

It is the second defeat for the remonstrators in the circuit court. They first declared that the procedure of the city in passing the improvement resolution as illegal, but the court ruled against them on that score too.

Days Pickings

The funeral services of Melvin Brooks will be held at the Christian church Friday afternoon at 2:00.

The ladies of the Big Flat Rock Christian church will hold an exchange on Wednesday, November 28th, in the Frazee Millinery store.

Chalon Jones has been employed on the city fire department by the committee of the city council to take the place of Joe Williamson who left Saturday for Norfolk, W. Va., to accept a position in the government navy yards.

Miss Ruth Jessop will give a play at Cornersville December 27 for the benefit of the Fayette county chapter of the Red Cross. All proceeds will go to that organization. The play, which has twenty-five in the cast, is French and costumed accordingly.

Services preparatory to the communion service will be held at the United Presbyterian church tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. D. Ira Lambert will preach at this time and all of the congregation and friends of the church are invited to attend.

Ozro Kirkham filed suit today in circuit court against Ray Kellam and John K. Smith, alleging the defendants did not carry out their contract to deliver him 800 bushels of corn at $1.55 a bushel. They delivered only 735 bushels, he says, and he claims $150 damage because of his loss on account of the advance in the price of corn.
